

her he "beat it." Police recovered him for his wife.

Constantinople.—Turkey has decided to reject Italy's latest peace offer.

Havre de Grace, Md.—Balti-more police will arrive here today to prevent betting on races. Gov. Goldsborough declared meeting must end this afternoon.

New York.—10 picnickers had to hurry to catch Hoboken ferry. Knew that motor car would be stopped by police. Hired hearse-automobile. Made it.

Middletown, Conn.—George H. Ward, 74, famous pedestrian, announced last year that he would live on 25 cents a week. Now in hospital.

Panama.—Dock workers at Balboa struck today. Want more pay. Four steamers tied up.

Aurora, Ill.—Mrs. Amanda Patton Baker, 67, wants divorce from George Baker, 70, wealthy farmer. Been married 5 months.

Cincinnati, O.—Board of Edu-cation decided to have 2 dances a week at all public schools.

New York.—John D. Rocke-feller's new 8-story mansion will soon be completed.

Belfast.—Joseph Devlin, Irish Nationalist member of parliament, seriously injured when auto axle broke near Carrick in Donegal.

Washington.—Rev. James S. Montgomery, Methodist Episcopal Church, advises all girls to form anti-mashers' club.

Omaha, Neb.—Report that Pat Crowe, kidnaper of Eddie Cudahy, would undergo operation is denied by Crowe, who left last night for his brother's home in Council Bluffs, Ia.

Dublin.—Suffragettes, headed by Mary Leigh, recently released from prison, held big meeting in Phoenix Park.

Seattle, Wash.—Frank B. Kel-logg, "trust buster," recently elected president of American Bar Ass'n, made speech against recall of judges before Seattle Bar Ass'n.

MERELY POLITICAL

Former Federal Judge Pete Grosscup has come out for Progressive party. That's about the worst slam the new party had to suffer yet.

Pittsburg, Kan.—"We have come to the place where the government must be used as an agent to right certain wrongs," said Roosevelt in speech here.

New York.—If Tammany tries to re-nominate Gov. Dix, Gov. Wilson will hop in, and light on Dix with both feet.

Rochelle, Ill.—Edward F. Dunne, speaking here, said the Deneen crowd was an "office seeking trust."

Taft leaders say Roosevelt changed his itinerary to throw John M. Harlan and Jadam Bede off the trail.

Hardly likely the Colonel ever bothered his head about a couple of lightweights like Harlan and Jadam.

Harlan, you remember, is the man who started out to be a reformer, and then got a job as a